

Call for Papers

Tourism Futures, Australia's premier National Tourism Conference, brings together the key players who drive Australia's tourism industry - the operators, infrastructure builders, investors, policy makers, researchers and marketers.

You are invited to offer a paper for presentation on Day 1 or Day 3 of the Tourism Futures National Conference 2010 - a fantastic opportunity to bring your knowledge to the industry and gain exposure.

Deadline for call for papers is 27 February 2010

Contact Us

Day 1: Tourism Futures Forums

Four full day forums provide cutting edge best practice updates with a strong focus on the future. Topics will feature innovation, trends and directions.

Forum Topics:

- Destination Management and Sustainability
- Consumer Research and Market Winning Insights
- Education Tourism
- Achieving a Competitive Edge

Day 3: Tourism Online - Applied Workshop

Known for its world class speakers and opportunities for delegates to learn, discuss and engage with leaders in international and national marketing, technology and distribution. Delegates will obtain insights into the latest trends, technology and tools. Speakers will address the emergence of new communication technology, changing consumer patterns of researching and purchasing travel.

To play your part in driving innovation for the Australian Tourism industry, please visit <http://www.tourismfutures.com.au/callForPapers.html> for expressions of interest details and to submit a paper.

